THE GITCOIN WEEKLY &

Hi folks 👋

Gitcoin is thrilled to add Open Source advocate and developer Eric Berry to our ranks!

Eric is a leader in the open source space, with 20+ years of software experience, and will be joining Gitcoin full-time as our OSS Sustainability Lead.

Day to day, he will continue growing Code Sponsor, where he has already helped generate over $10,000 in funding for open source projects. As Code Sponsor and Gitcoin join forces, we're excited about the opportunities we'll have to collaborate towards a shared mission to grow open source.

If you get a chance, say hey to Eric on slack or on twitter.

Back to coding!
