THE GITCOIN WEEKLY

Howdy doo,

I hope you are having a great holiday!

Many in the world have different circumstances than myself, and to a large extent 'to each his own', but I personally have found it important to rest & rejuvenate by take some time off for work. Will resume regularly scheduled crushin' it in 2018 :)

That said, I did want to send an email this week because I have a fun little piece of news for you. We are launching Ethwallpaper.co -- our holiday gift to the Ethereum community. It's just a fun little tool that takes any image and turns it into an Ethereum logo wallpaper.

I hope you enjoy playing with it, and maybe you download one of the wallpapers for your own desktop! May I humbly recommend this New Years Eve one?

Next time I write you, it'll be 2018. Cheers yall 🥂

Onward! ⭐
